Harbor Password Slip

Read the printed credential exactly as shown on the slip.

Account code: ABC

Clerks copied the three-letter account code from the slip before logging into the harbor records kiosk at the front desk.

The printed code stayed active only during the morning shift, so staff were told to quote it exactly when opening the archived shipment register.